Dear Folk Artist,

Grab your hat and boots and come paint a spell in the beautiful Texas Hill Country! We'll have 3 wonderful weeks of painting, learning, and relaxing. We also have a fall class in October. The Hill Country Arts Foundation is located in Ingram, 65 miles northwest of San Antonio, Texas on the Guadalupe River. This is only 6 miles from Kerrville, Texas.

I will share designs, painting techniques, and encourage you to express yourself. A little time for field trips and retail therapy are a "must"! Formal teaching hours are from 9-4; however, our fully air conditioned studio is open 24 hours a day! Be sure to let us know your class preferences – three summer classes plus one fall class!

All classes begin on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 P.M.

Please sign on early. Classes fill fast. This helps me in the ordering and shipping of your pieces. A list of accommodations can be obtained from the Arts Foundation. Again, early reservations are helpful since the Texas Hill Country is a very popular vacation area. Out of State students may wish to fly into San Antonio and rent a car. Many students stay in Kerrville at the Hampton Inn, the Inn of the Hills, Holiday Inn Express, or in Ingram at the Hunter's Lodge. Some private homes are available.

Y'all come!

Heidi

Tuition is $240 per week or $225 for HCAF Members.

The Deposit is $100 per week. The remaining tuition is due 1 month prior to your class.

The Surface Fee is due by the end of your painting week, and is paid to Heidi England. Upon receipt of your full tuition, you will receive an envelope with Instructions, Patterns and Photos – about two weeks before your class.
